

Social Distancing versus Quarantine

Social distancing means remaining out of places where people meet or gather, avoiding local public transportation (eg, bus, subway, taxi, rideshare), and maintaining distance (approximately 6 feet or 2 meters) from others.

Quarantine isolates and restricts the movement of people who were exposed to a contagious disease to see if they develop symptoms.